

BUBBULAS BUMP AND BABY FAIR
FOR BUMP, BIRTH AND BEYOND
Sunday June 26th, 2011

Toddlers had fun while parents and parents-to-be got to shop, go to taster sessions or just relax in the cafe at the JCC/JCORE Bubbulas Bump and Baby Fair.

Over 100 parents and expectant parents visited the event on Sunday June 26, at Avenue House, East End Road, Finchley, which offered the chance to try out baby massage, yoga, a Gymboree class or Debutots session, or just check out the products on offer from the 26 stall holders, including John Lewis.

Leah Warren, Families Programmer, from the Jewish Community Centre for London (JCC), said: "It was a great afternoon – people enjoyed what was on offer indoors and the beautiful weather and grounds outdoors.
